

person who could actually be a good guide to East Jerusalem. He's just started producing stories there. So I think we're not going to get as we all understand and appreciate on the east side. There's not as sophisticated or go to organization.

Speaker 1 - 03:12

So where you have questions, Elise, I think they're legitimate. On the other hand, I think we just have to give. Give this a chance and make it happen and with open and enthusiastic and supportive relationships with the director. So I think you've got some good people and organizations to work with.

ot

I also want to say that one of the things we learned from last time that oh can you guys hear me? Because it says my Internet connection is unstable even though I've got four bars. Are we good?

Speaker 1 - 03:53

Yeah.

Speaker 2 - 03:53

Okay, so two thoughts on that. We are going to hire a producer to be in charge of overall production rather than just a project manager who deals with the day to day. And as we had budgeted earlier last year and it didn't work out, we're going to have someone who is really familiar whether they're East Jerusalemite or a Palestinian producer. That's going to be a part of the structure. I think we'll have more support there. Then my second thought is along the lines of this kind of affiliate host. I was thinking that maybe we pair with the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance in some regard because then they kind of both gain from that. What the, how do I say exactly how the interaction works.

Speaker 2 - 04:56

I, I haven't sorted that out, but I'm kind of feeling like I don't want to leave anybody out. But we can't afford more than five. Well, at the moment we can't afford anyone, but that's, you know, in my optimistic self, I'd really like to have five organizations. I believe in odd numbers. James, do you want to comment on any of t e

Speaker 3 - 08:07

It's that they get a very strong participation from people who live where they are, who happen to be either from Maya Sharim on the backside or Sheikh Jarrah on the front side. So there's a really strong integrative sensibility there. And the director is fantastic.

thinking about? What's striking you in this. In these descriptions? We can't hear you yet, babe. Maybe your volume needs to go up. You look gorgeous, but we can't hear you.

Okay.

Speaker 6 - 13:36

Diane, I really like the idea of bringing in people of different disciplines than the organization normally presents. I. I think that's really it. It's sort of like putting a pebble in the pond and you're not sure exactly what's going to happen there. So I, I love the idea of the opera singer, the honey and wax. I. I think that's really interesting because. And when I was thinking about museum on the scene and thinking about a dancer, a performer or a poet, that they. They're still in the same place as when I was there.

Speaker 2 - 14:17

Am I correct?

Speaker 6 - 14:17

And they had.

Speaker 2 - 14:18

Oh, yeah, yeah,.

Speaker 6 - 14:21

Yeah. And do they have a collection? I don't remember.

Speaker 2 - 14:25

No, I don't think so.

Speaker 6 - 15:56

Yeah, I love the museum when

Yeah.

Speaker 3 - 17:41

Also be in the middle of town. And the whole point is to create a dynamic between the creative makers who are students there and the community. They work very hard. It's remarkable that the percentage of students coming from the Palestinian community is growing every year and particularly in mediums like architecture, design, planning, photography, film, video, animation. There's just a real dynamic there. And there are other organizations now connected to Bezalel that provide platforms for emerging artists to be students and also be in Jerusalem. So I think if you hit the right department here, somebody with that focus and many of the department heads in those mediums have it could really plug them in.

Speaker 6 - 18:35

Well, that sounds great. Yeah. It seems like bees could be a theme.

Speaker 2 - 18:43

I know, it could be the Bee residency. The Beehive residency. We could call it the Beehive instead of the residency.

Speaker 6 - 18:50

Yeah, but I mean just the idea of people working together as groups and some leaders, some not, but I. Yeah, okay. That helps me a lot, James. Thank you very much.

Speaker 2 - 19:03

So I'm highlighting in orange the places I'm hearing strong, how do you say, strong support for. Just because I'm a color code kind of a gal. So what do we feel about Artist Cube? What do we feel about Israel's story? I think there's a place for Jerusalem Academy in some way, shape or form. So I'm going to give that a light orange. So, yeah, I'm really like, I'm a little nuts that way. So really the three that are not the four that aren't clear is Artist Cube, Israel Story, Museum of Islamic Art, YMCA. So if were to eliminate two, then we'd have 1, 2, 3. I'm hoping you're seeing my cursor go up and down between Jamb and Jerusalem Heart House.

Speaker 2 - 20:12

Although I also understand, Ruth, there's an idea that maybe we have museum on the scene, but let's say that Jerusalem Art House is connected with one or the other. So it's. So that's really. Those four are my questions because we only have room for one more.

Speaker 1 - 20:33

So if I could just interject. I have four. I have, let's see. Yeah, four. I would consider substituting Jam for. Oh, wait, let's see. Yes, for Israel Story. And here's my thinking, following this beehive or collective way, a way of working and also that are places that are clustered around the seam. East West Betsalel is right in the center of like Musara, which is a community, as you all know, because you live there on the seam.

Speaker 2 - 21:11

Yeah, it's like two blocks from the house.

Right, right.

Speaker 2 - 21:16

Three.

Speaker 1 - 21:17

So instead of jammed, which is, you know, way over in West Jerusalem, if you took Israel Story, which doesn't really have a place, I mean, they have an office space. Right. But it's, it could be connective in terms of their stories and people who are. Who are moving and could weave somehow perhaps among these areas. Then I think you've got like a physical presence on either side of the city or really integrating the city through these organizations that are clustered there. And I kind of really like that. I think it's. That's really interesting. As opposed to having some outliers, these places beg for me a different kind of, as somebody was saying, a different kind of creative way of doing resonances.

Speaker 2 - 22:10

Also, the idea that you're going to have a musician and a producer perhaps is kind of an interesting combination yet. Diane?

Speaker 4 - 22:21

Yeah.

Speaker 6 - 22:22

Ruth, when you were saying that this may be completely off base, but would it make sense to see if Israel Story would be interested in doing a weekly broadcast of in progress work or interviews or something like that and being the go to place for the whole program.

Speaker 2 - 22:40

I think they would. If there's somebody who actually, because I think this is my sense, correct me if I'm wrong. My sense is they ha. I think they do weekly podcasts. I confess I haven't been up on that. But it's really about whether a producer from outside can work that fast. Or maybe, I mean, I did actually I did run by Mishy the idea of following the fellows sort of independently. So the answer is it's a good idea. I don't know if they have capacity for that. I mean, they have a lot of producers. It's just like what else are they working on? Maybe they make room for that. But it would probably be somebody independent of the fellows. She got my drift.

Speaker 3 - 23:35

I love Israel's story. I'm just not sure. Ruth, comment on this. I mean, we know them quite well for a long time and we know Michi quite well. I'm just not sure what their mindset would be about being the docking station for a fellow. I love the other idea that we could convince Michi and Israel story to sort of track what the International Fellows are up to. But I just don't know. I mean remembering last year, the host organization becomes a source of inspiration for the Fellow and the Fellow's work.

Speaker 1 - 24:24

Actually.

Speaker 2 - 24:25

I mean Viba and Anna, you could comment maybe from your own perspectives but from my point of view it was less about the host organization being the inspiration as being. I think what we learned was like in the case of Melchem, who we love, he didn't have a point person and Sophia really had to like create her own thing which was frustrating. I don't know Anna Vibha, you want to talk a little more about your own experiences?

Speaker 4 - 25:01

See more than a place. I think it was the city itself which was becoming our, you know, so the connection we made on the weekly meetings so you know, that became the point of inspiration rather than the host organization in my case and in Sophia's case also. But yes, in Claudia's case I think she got the place, she got a person to talk to and share her ideas, then share many things and I think there I forgot the person's name. Claudio has been benefited with the. Yeah, a lot. So you know, a lot was a great contact person because you know, dancers have a different way of working with visual artists for visual artists. I, I feel the Israel story is very interesting place in terms of discussion, in terms of, you know, creating a local archives, creating a different kind of discussion altogether.

Speaker 4 - 27:25

Yeah.

Speaker 3 - 27:25

And a fellow because, you know the.

Speaker 4 - 27:28

Sorry, yeah, James.

Speaker 3 - 27:30

A fellow. Excuse me, a fellow there might stimulate an idea for a later project at museum. That's what that could be about. Which could be beneficial.

Speaker 1 - 27:43

Yeah.

Speaker 4 - 27:44

And Bitslil. I am really interested in that university because, you know, it is sitting on a really lot of archives and lots of great treasure of text. So how somebody goes and looks into that and look into the art practice because it's not completely contemporary, I'll say there are very few contemporary artists if we inter look at internationally. So, you know, I'm sorry, I'm judging it, but it's my impression of that place. So it'll be very interesting to understand the intellectual point of view from Bethsalem in that sense. So these three places for me are Win situation Islamic Museum. I'm not much aware of it though I read about it, but I couldn't figure out much about it and jamd I really like that place.

Speaker 4 - 28:40

As I mentioned, if Riyadh is connected to, you know, if they both are connected, that could be beneficial for the, you know, the guarantee and rest. I'm not sure. Israel story. Yes, it's a great platform but how somebody benefits or uses it or use the information from them, that's, you know, that's a question.

Speaker 5 - 29:05

Yeah.

Speaker 2 - 29:08

Diane, before you get off, do you want to. I'd love for you to weigh in and then Anna, I give you the last word.

Speaker 6 - 29:21

Yeah, just with the ymca, what I really liked about the place is that it was a mix of people on the staff as well as people who use it. So someone who's interested in that and is interested in sort of social correspondence in some way, it could be a perfect place. And I would say I didn't have. The people were very nice and very supportive there, but I didn't have a whole lot of contact. It was just I asked for a table and a lamp and an extension cord and that was it. And I just sat there and talked to people and so that was. But as far as a really supportive place that's going to rah rah around what I. What the person is doing. It's. I don't think it didn't happen when I was there.

Speaker 6 - 30:18

I agree with Bibra about the Museum of Islamic Art, although I think it's a great place. But when we talked about point of view of what they would accept or not accept and what they would want. So maybe, I don't know, to learn more about them for a future partnership might be a better way to go than include them this time. And Artist Cube. I don't. I've. I was making notes along the way, and I can't. I didn't make any notes about Artist Cube. So I, I. Can you say one more thing about it before I look at it?

Speaker 2 - 30:58

So Artist Cube is both studio and exhibition space, and they now have a roof.

Speaker 3 - 31:06

And.

Speaker 2 - 31:08

Lihi, who's been a force in the visual arts world in Jerusalem for a long time, has talked about how their focus is really about visual, is really about social engagement. That said, they're pretty. They're pretty far out. They're like topiote is. How do you say, it's a bit of a. It's a bit of a ride to get there.

Speaker 4 - 31:32

Yeah.

Speaker 6 - 31:33

Yeah. Okay. All right.

Speaker 2 - 31:40

Anna?

Speaker 5 - 31:43

Yeah. I think I have a hesitation about Artist Cube because they already have an artist residency program, and I wonder what distinguishes that from this. I think it's, like, more interesting how the Jerusalem fellows are working with explicitly community organizations, I think is interesting.

Speaker 3 - 32:04

I know. And Diane needs to get off too, so that's why. Go ahead.

Speaker 3 - 34:18

Just knowing all these organizations and their working modes, I think. And really, this is among us, the ones which I think might not be so easy to plug into for success, for the benefit of the fellows would be the imca, the YMCA Museum on the Seam, Artist Cube. And while I like Ruth's idea about Israel's story, I'm just not sure I see successfully how that can plug in for the. For the good of the fellow. If I had to say in a nanosecond, which four, I would say Sinsilla Museum on the scene, Betsalel, and connecting Ra' Ed to the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance. It is true that they're not on the east side, but we shouldn't penalize an organization for being on the west side.

Speaker 3 - 35:22

It's not so far west, and they really make a huge effort to be integrated in their student body and in their faculty.

Speaker 2 - 35:32

Oh, by the way, we are. We're planning for five. Just so. So. Yeah, yeah. That's why I wanted to eliminate. I've already lost track of the math, so I'm just reflecting what I'm hearing. So the five could be. And I just want to say, for the perspective. My perspective on Israel story is I know they have interns, and I know that they have facilities. So I think for someone who's in that radio podcast world, it would kind of be a perfect place.

Speaker 3 - 36:12

You can do five. I would put them in, and I would. And I'm sorry, I really do have to run because they're like.

Speaker 1 - 36:17

Yeah.

Speaker 3 - 36:18

Gesturing wildly at me. I would take out Imka Museum of Islamic Art and Artist Cube and play with the others.

Speaker 4 - 36:27

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 36:28

Then I think we have. Anyway. No, no.

Speaker 2 - 36:31

Well, I think Ra Ed piece is that Raed would either connect with the seam or with Jerusalem Academy.

Speaker 3 - 36:38

Exactly.

Speaker 1 - 36:39

Interesting. Yeah. Then that would. That would be good.

Speaker 3 - 36:42

That's a cool idea. Connect. I think Ryan connected to one or the other of those would be very enriching for the organization and very helpful for the fellow.

Speaker 5 - 36:52

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 36:52

For him and for him.

Speaker 4 - 36:55

Okay, may I. May I run? Because my family is waiting for. You know.

Speaker 2 - 37:00

Okay. It sounds like everyone needs to run, and I feel like.

Speaker 3 - 37:05

I feel like it's the family waiting for us.

Speaker 4 - 37:08

All right.

Speaker 2 - 37:09

I Know family first.

Speaker 4 - 37:10

Okay,.

Speaker 2 - 37:15

Thank you. Ruthie, can you stay on for one second?

Speaker 1 - 37:19

Yes, yes.

Speaker 2 - 37:21

Thank you all. Anna, thank you for waking up early.

Speaker 1 - 37:25

Wait, Elise, can we see each other? I've seen.

Speaker 2 - 37:28

Yes. Opening us up, because. There we go. Hi.

Speaker 1 - 37:34

One second. I didn't see you yet.

Speaker 2 - 37:36

Oh, I'm here. But let me move us here. Oh, actually do. We don't need the list anymore, right?

Speaker 1 - 37:43

No, I think.

Speaker 2 - 37:44

Okay, so let me find. Stop, share.

Speaker 1 - 37:47

Stop, share.

Speaker 2 - 37:48

Okay.

Speaker 1 - 37:49

Hi. That's good. I was just thinking that. I mean, it doesn't have to be decided right this second, but Israel Story did say composer.

Speaker 2 - 38:04

Oh. Because he said. Yeah. And he also said to me, radio producer. So either way.

Speaker 1 - 38:09

So if you go in the direction of composer, then it starts to get very interesting, very integrated with.

Speaker 2 - 38:17

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 38:18

I think almost like. And then let the magic happen.

Speaker 2 - 38:21

Like. Right. Because then if you have Ra Ed and the Academy and Israel's Story kind of.

Speaker 1 - 38:29

I mean. Yeah. Is right.

Speaker 4 - 38:34

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 38:36

I think I even have. I mean, this can wait till we're going to see each other. So that. That's. But.

Speaker 2 - 38:45

I really wanted to get eliminated. That my objective, which I didn't say. Right. Or just we eliminate the focus for.

Speaker 1 - 38:52

This year and then in another year, you know, or another time, those others can be placed. But I think this is really an interesting mix.

Speaker 4 - 39:01

Okay.

Speaker 6 - 39:02

Good, good, good.

Speaker 1 - 39:04

Yeah.

Speaker 2 - 39:05

When do you come to New York? On Wednesday?

Speaker 4 - 39:09

I. Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 39:10

When's. You know how when the trip looms large and it's like, when you're on the plane, it's like, oh, my God, did I. Did I pat. Anyway, it's okay.

Speaker 4 - 39:24

It's good.

Speaker 1 - 39:25

Yeah.

Speaker 3 - 39:26

So.

Speaker 2 - 39:28

So I'm gonna see you Thursday morning, Thursday evening, and then you're coming for Shabbat dinner.

Speaker 1 - 39:35

You know what? I. I mean, can you think I can.

Speaker 2 - 39:42

If you think you can. You think you can. You think you can. Okay. It would be really great. I'm, like, inviting fun people.

Speaker 1 - 39:50

Oh, I'll be happy to come for that.

Speaker 2 - 39:53

Okay. And if you wanted, we could go to Cane Street Synagogue for Kabbalah, Shabbat.

Speaker 4 - 40:00

Nice.

Speaker 2 - 40:01

Wow.

Speaker 1 - 40:02

It would be very nice. Yeah. How long from the Upper west side? What? You'll tell me that? Okay.

Speaker 2 - 40:08

Yeah, the trains. The train from the Upper west side. I'd give myself 45 minutes. An hour. I'd say an hour is probably like, you know, I always cut things short, as you probably know.

Speaker 6 - 40:20

Me too.

Speaker 2 - 40:21

I'd say give yourself an hour. Although at that time of the day. So basically you get to 59th street and then you Take the A train all the way to Brooklyn, which is a pretty quick trip, and then you change to the F train for one stop.

Speaker 1 - 40:36

Okay.

Speaker 2 - 40:38

It's actually as. As a person who has to go to see her shrink on the side. That's generally. But I'll send it to you. Yeah. It's 59th Street A and then one stop, and the F is just across the platform, so it's really.

Speaker 1 - 40:55

How far into Brooklyn do you go on the A?

Speaker 2 - 40:58

It's just the first street. It's to J Street, which is the third stop in Brooklyn, and then one more stop on the F train. So we're not really that far in. We're not talking Canarsie here.

Speaker 3 - 41:15

All right.

Speaker 2 - 41:16

I'm still in, like, what I call the civilized part of Brooklyn. Although the whole thing is getting so, like, gentrified that I don't even know what to say about that.

Speaker 1 - 41:27

I know you're one of the originals,.

Speaker 2 - 41:29

So I'm gonna invite David Norris.

Speaker 3 - 41:33

Oh.

Speaker 2 - 41:34

Oh, how fun would that be?

Speaker 1 - 41:38

Very fun.

Speaker 2 - 41:39

Okay, cool.

Speaker 4 - 41:40

Yeah.

Speaker 2 - 41:41

I don't know why I didn't think of that, but I'm thinking of that. Let me see if he's great.

Speaker 1 - 41:45

I just have to tell you. Wait, am I gonna bring. Wait, where were those pictures? This guy, Tomas, the B guy, he'll blow your socks off.

Speaker 5 - 41:55

And is he.

Speaker 2 - 41:55

Where is he from?

Speaker 1 - 41:56

And he wants to meet a nice Jewish from Slovakia.

Speaker 2 - 42:00

Oh, perfect.

Speaker 1 - 42:02

Going out with a Jewish woman. And at the console, he maybe had one extra drink, and he said, I really want to meet a Jewish woman. I said, okay, well, there's a lot. Palestinian, maybe. How about that? Anyway, he does this wild work, and he was supposed to be so great. It's unbelievable. I was like, all right, there. All right, we got that. Yeah, for sure. Really unbelievable.

Speaker 2 - 42:30

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 42:30

And I have.

Speaker 2 - 42:31

I mean, for the composer, I already know who I think would be perfect. Her name is Kamala Sakaram, and she is originally. I. I know she's originally from someplace in the Middle East. I mean, she lives in America. I think she might have been born here, but. And she is an opera singer, but also a composer. And she's. She's a dear. So I think.

Speaker 1 - 42:56

Just think about making. I don't know. You have to see. But a person like that working with Ra' Ed Israel's story.

Right, right.

Speaker 4 - 43:09

Those.

Speaker 1 - 43:10

I mean, you could present it like that. This is immovable. This isn't, like, be in a place and put.

Speaker 2 - 43:16

You know, it's going in and out of cells. I think the only question is expectation of the fellow. Right. That's only consideration. But yeah.

Speaker 1 - 43:30

And then I have. This is for. I don't know when this is for, but I woke up the other night and went, oh, my gosh. There is an amazing person who has been. His name is Aryeh Rosen.

Speaker 3 - 43:45

He.

Speaker 1 - 43:46

He's. He comes from theater. He's Israeli. His parents are British. He's a lovely person. Both languages, perfect. He grew up in Jerusalem. He was working for the Polish Institute hereafter. And then he went into service, cultural attache service. He's been in Japan for a few years. He's staying on, doing amazing projects. He did during COVID. You might have seen this. There was. It was his project. He hooked up a Japanese.

Speaker 5 - 44:20

Wait.

Speaker 1 - 44:20

Choreographer with Batsheva.

Speaker 2 - 44:22

With a.

Speaker 1 - 44:24

With a.

Speaker 2 - 44:25

A poem.

Speaker 1 - 44:26

And it was on Times Square in.

Speaker 2 - 44:29

Oh. During that big creative time or whoever. Yeah.

Speaker 3 - 44:34

Wow.

Speaker 2 - 44:34

Anyway, he's.

Speaker 1 - 44:36

He's still in Japan, but I thought he could be an amazing, like, producer for this. If we grabbed him for. He's kind of freelance right now in Japan and he comes with. Listen to that. I saw his mother this morning. I said, I had this crazy idea. I'm going to be meeting with my colleague.

Speaker 2 - 44:58

Partner.

Speaker 1 - 44:59

She said, be in touch with him because it's enough time off. His partner, he's married to a man named Noam who did for. Also something for the Israeli embassy, like financial stuff, and said if they come as partners, that guy Noam could be.

Speaker 2 - 45:17

Like the financial tracking.

Speaker 1 - 45:19

Aria does the producing and we get local. This Ehab is blowing. Did you meet him yet?

Speaker 4 - 45:27

He.

Speaker 1 - 45:28

He is so incredible about how he's doing.

Speaker 2 - 45:31

Good. Oh, good.

Speaker 1 - 45:33

There's the team. I mean, we just haven't asked anybody. We don't have the money.

Speaker 4 - 45:37

No.

Speaker 2 - 45:38

But we have a little time. But we could. Oh, and.

Speaker 1 - 45:41

And I had lunch with Angelica this past week and I said. She said, what's going. You know, I said, well, Elise and I are talking about JF jcu.

Speaker 4 - 45:53

Da da da.

Speaker 1 - 45:54

And she said. I said, we think now that time is like, makes sense to make a connection. And she said, if that happens, come talk to me. She said, it does make sense.

Speaker 2 - 46:11

So.

Speaker 4 - 46:12

All right.

Speaker 1 - 46:12

Well, you know, it's just starting to gel.

Speaker 2 - 46:17

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 46:18

But I mean, I haven't reached out to Aria. I won't do it till we.

Speaker 2 - 46:21

Yeah, no, until we have a little more jelly.

Speaker 1 - 46:23

Because we have a. We have time. But I was just thinking, man, this would be like. He knows how to work with international artists. He's always curious. He's traveling in Europe Listen, it would.

Speaker 2 - 46:35

Make life so much easier. We have to book and we have him, and we have somebody in finance. Oh, my God, what a team. And.

Speaker 3 - 46:48

Stool.

Speaker 1 - 46:49

Exactly. Then that becomes jaf.

Speaker 2 - 46:53

Jcu.

Speaker 1 - 46:55

Jcu.

Speaker 6 - 46:56

Yeah.

Speaker 4 - 46:57

Yeah.

Speaker 2 - 46:59

Yo, Fee. Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 47:02

So, all right. I kind of spilled all my beans. Now we can just go out and drink and have fun.

Speaker 5 - 47:08

I know,.

Speaker 1 - 47:11

But. Yeah. Okay. So cool.

Speaker 2 - 47:15

I'm feeling excited. Yeah, I am anxious. Oh, I'm.

Speaker 1 - 47:19

I'm excited.

Speaker 2 - 47:20

This is what I usually feel about this.

Speaker 4 - 47:22

Right?

Speaker 1 - 47:23

No, it's just. It's great that Tomas. What he did. What James didn't describe is you see the bust of Hadrian. There are three of them in the world. Okay. One of them's at the Israel Museum.

Speaker 2 - 47:36

Right, right.

Speaker 1 - 47:38

And the bees, he. You should hear the way he's a riot, the way he talks about it. He said, the bees work for me. They create like a honey, a comb or something, like a hive structure that's around the 3D generated infrastructure that is the bust of Hadrian. And one of them comes out with beehive, like, you know, with hives that looks exactly like the bust. And the other one is like this expressionistic, that part of the face kind of.

Speaker 2 - 48:08

But it's all made out of honeycomb. So they just go in and be in the.

Speaker 1 - 48:12

They make honey.

Speaker 2 - 48:13

It's honey in the combs. Honeycomb.

Speaker 1 - 48:17

And then there's already a connection with the Israel Museum because he put hives in the sculpture garden of the Israel Museum. That's where the. It's really. He's. He's done this. He's like, natural. And I said, you've got to come and meet Tarek. And since he's really up for it.

Speaker 2 - 48:39

You know that garden has turned into a bee farm. Like, mean.

Speaker 1 - 48:45

It's amazing.

Speaker 2 - 48:46

Like, you look down off the roof and it's like, I know.

Speaker 1 - 48:50

And you won't believe this. So I've got two new. I think I told you. One of our wonderful colleague Rivka is going back to the States. Oh, yeah, I saw you. We have this. We have a dream team. I mean, still. So we do. Are not dipping. We're just kind of holding up. We have an independent curator who's. Who's totally into jcu, who's totally charming, like, there.

Speaker 2 - 49:15

Oh, yeah, you told me about me.

Speaker 1 - 49:18

And we have this woman, Miguel Strauss, who is also. And they get on. So I'm just like, .

Speaker 2 - 49:28

Is your residency with the Palestinians still going on?

Speaker 1 - 49:31

Yes. And we have.

Speaker 4 - 49:33

We.

Speaker 1 - 49:33

We did a studio visit and they're learning how to speak about their work with Shlomit because they'll do it in Hebrew with her translating. So that's very good. And there. And our interns are interested. It's very interesting.

Speaker 2 - 49:49

I love those two women. Love them.

Speaker 1 - 49:52

Yes. Mice is mice. You know, I was thinking, well, somebody who could be. If there's a vid. I can't remember now, who wanted the, like, video.

Speaker 2 - 50:02

Right.

Speaker 1 - 50:05

She could. We could have some lower. You know, some people, it depends how much money we get, but to really create relationships and. And.

Speaker 2 - 50:17

Interactions.

Speaker 1 - 50:18

Interaction, learning, collaborations.

Speaker 2 - 50:22

I think they would love that. You know, I mean, really. I think people always. I think artists, assuming we find people who like to collaborate, which is, of course, our objective.

Speaker 3 - 50:35

Right.

Speaker 2 - 50:35

I think people would really be grateful for the opportunity because you. You learn so much more about the place when you're working with somebody who lives there.

Speaker 1 - 50:44

Yeah, yeah, Right. No, it's true.

Speaker 2 - 50:47

Yeah. Okay. All right, partner. I'll see you Thursday morning.

Speaker 1 - 50:53

Thursday, right. We have. Oh, did you write me a place where I.

Speaker 2 - 50:58

Maybe I think it's in the. Wait, hold on. Let me look at the invitation, because I think.

Speaker 1 - 51:03

Oh, maybe it's there. Sorry,.

Speaker 2 - 51:08

Hold on. I'm telling it in a second because I do know it. I mean, I don't know it in my head, but I do know it's someplace. Bink, bink. Okay, we did that at. Oh, yeah, here we go. It is in the invitation, but if you want me to just tell you. It's in the. What do you call that? Flatiron district. And it's 156 Fifth Avenue.

Speaker 4 - 51:31

Which.

Speaker 2 - 51:33

Which I could tell you in the moment.

Speaker 1 - 51:35

It's in the invite.

Speaker 5 - 51:37

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 51:39

So it's at his office, I guess at his office. So it's called something or.

Speaker 2 - 51:44

Oh, yeah, I think.

Speaker 4 - 51:48

I'll.

Speaker 2 - 51:48

I'll make sure I get you that. I'll make sure I have the name of it. I think it's Centurion or something. Have you ever met him?

Speaker 1 - 51:58

I'm not sure. I doubt it.

Speaker 2 - 52:00

Okay. He's a really lovely guy.

Speaker 1 - 52:03

I met his sister, who was also lovely. Sarah. Yes, yes. Long, Long, long.

Speaker 2 - 52:10

I've met his mom. She never gave me any money, but she was really lovely. And you know, his father's James Wolfensohn of. But both his parents passed and he's on the board of bam. I don't know exactly his position, so he gets all this, but I think we're really asking him about Yadhan Nadiv. And who knows? If we plant the seed about something else. Maybe, maybe.

Speaker 1 - 52:35

I mean, he. Yeah. Okay, so we can share with him the kind of range of.

Speaker 2 - 52:42

Oh, yeah.

Speaker 1 - 52:43

The organizations are looking for in. You know, maybe draw him in that way maybe as some recommendation.

Speaker 2 - 52:51

Well, yeah, I mean he's really like. He's a really, like. He gets all of this.

Speaker 4 - 52:58

Yeah.

Speaker 1 - 52:58

Isn't that wonderful?

Speaker 2 - 52:59

And his wife is a documentary filmmaker who I love. I love his wife, who's. What's her name is Jen Small. And she. I think she was really being a stay home mom for a while, but she's gotten back into doing this because I guess she has because the kids are older and she just was producer for the doc about Robert Gottlieb and Robert, the other guy who wrote the Power Broker. I. I'm totally blanking on his name, but he's a famous author and the two of them were editor and author for many years. And so. Yeah, so she worked on that and it's done very well, so she gets it too. But who knows? Maybe that could be a family something because we have. Might have a music person and a documentary film person. You never know.

Speaker 2 - 54:04

But we'll like plant a lot of seeds.

Speaker 1 - 54:06

Yeah, great.

Speaker 5 - 54:08

Okay.

Speaker 4 - 54:09

Okay.

Speaker 2 - 54:10

So Nisiatova. I hope you get to see sleep on the plane.

Speaker 1 - 54:15

Yes, I will for sure. I'm so. I am so tired. I'm. I mean, I'm doing full days, but when I drop, I like drop like. Oh, I'm so excited what happened to me, but it's just busy.

Speaker 2 - 54:30

Hey, listen, it's been a stressful time.

Speaker 1 - 54:33

Yeah, it's just full time. Yeah. Yeah. So.

Speaker 2 - 54:40

Okay.

Speaker 6 - 54:40

Okay.

Speaker 2 - 54:41

Okay.

Speaker 6 - 54:42

So.

Speaker 2 - 54:42

Yeah, so rest. Yeah, rest when you can.

Speaker 1 - 54:48

Like birds when you put the.

Speaker 6 - 54:49

You know.

Speaker 5 - 54:52

Yeah.

Speaker 2 - 54:53

All right.

Speaker 1 - 54:53

Love.

Speaker 4 - 54:54

Okay, thanks.

Speaker 1 - 54:55

All right, great.

Speaker 6 - 54:56

See you soon.

Speaker 2 - 54:58

Yeah, good.

Speaker 3 - 55:05

It. Right.

Speaker 2 - 55:11

You're supposed to be gone. You're supposed to be over.

Speaker 5 - 55:36

Okay.

Speaker 2 - 55:37

I don't know how to get rid of you.
