JERUSALEM INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS

Dear <<First Name>>,

Like many of you, I am unable to stop watching, listening to and reading about the horrific events happening in Israel. I am in contact with our many friends and colleagues in Jerusalem, East and West. Thank God, so far, no one in our immediate circle has been hurt, but it is a very small country. Everyone knows someone who cannot find a child or has lost a grandparent or whose son or daughter or partner is being called up to serve in this conflagration.

Everyone I've spoken with is in a state of shock about what is happening now the present moment is unspeakably awful.

I am praying for the safe return of hostages, the healing of all who have been injured, some small measure of comfort to the families of the dead, and a swift end to this terrible conflict.

There are two organizations who I support who are working directly to help the most vulnerable right now. I urge you to contribute to them if you are able:
